however, since neither of them understood each other, they spoke through their gestures one day, solity was playing by himself as usual, when a boy came to talk to him even though he wanted to make friends, he didn't know how to talk to them solity, from the neighbouring country, was always alone as soon as he got home, solity told his father, "i want to learn the language!" looking at the troubled boy, solity felt sad the boy tried his best to help solity fit in but it wasn't going very well thus the two of them became friends, but they couldn't really play with the other kids THANK YOU, YOU READ WELL and they all lived happily ever after solity, who studied and learnt the country's language, was able to talk to everyone, and made a lot of friends
